the foreign indebtedness is to be partly sancelled. While this has been provided for in large measure, so that little disturbance to the money market will follow, it is bound to produce some unronounced bull movement.

Attempts by the bear contingent to ase the early payment of $40,000,000 for the Panama Canal as a bear argument because of possible menace to the money market, was promptly squelched. It will not be made until after the treaty with Colombia is ratified, and then not a dollar of it will be taken from Wall

According to semi-official statements by local bankers the entire amount of $40,000,000 will be taken, out of the United States Treasury on a Treasury warrant, shipped to the Bank of France for deposit, and there sub-divided among those who are to get it.

From Dec. 27 last up to Saturday the banks included in the Clearing-House Association increased the reserve held by $315,59,400, and added $19,865,775 to the surplus reserve. This ease in money is expected soon to result in an increased willingness on the part of bankers to finance big enterprises.

St. Paul was actively dealt in during the forencon. The manner in which insiders bought the stock at the offerings inspired the room traders to take the long side. They bought along with insiders at advancing prices.

The entire railroad list responded to the activity in St. Paul, and after the early trading, in which fractional recovertes all around were the important features, the market became animated. The industrial list was led by United States Steel and American Sugar Refining.

Stocks of the General Electric Company advanced nearly 7 points by noon on the persistent report that the big pending deal, whereby it is to absorb the Stanley Electric Company and thus acquire valuable rights and patents. The merger has been under way for some time, the Whitney-Ryan combination having charge of the nexotiations. These are now far enough advanced to warrant expectation of the deal soon being closed.

Private advices received from Washington by influential bankers and brokers in Wall street were that the allies would accept Venezuela's offers made through Maister Bowen and that an amicable settlement of the whole matter was a question of a short time only. Upon the expectation that an official declaration would soon be made, the international list was dealt in in greater volume, and some advances were recorded in stocks which have been declining

The reassuring tone of the Washington-London-Berlin messages had an immediate effect upon the market. Advances in the leading stocks were: St.
Paul 1, Missouri Pacific 1 1-4, Texas Pacific 1, Eric common 1 3-8, Delaware and Hudson 1 1-2, Rock Island 1, Sugar 1 1-4,
Westinghouse 2 per cent, General Electric 6 per cent.

Later in the day confidence in the peaceful outcome sustained such a reversal of form that there were fractional declines in nearly all the issues and trading was restricted.

Carter's Little Liver Pills

As old as is the fighting game, it is doubtful if so many important battles were scheduled to be decided in one night as there is for te-night. Four contests are billed to take place. Three will be fought in this country, and the fought, which will be an international affair, will be held at the National Sporting Club, of London.

The most important battle of the lot is the bout between Peter Maher and Joe Goopnaki, of California, who is regarded as one of the eleverest big fellows to ever pull on a boxing glove. They are to meet in a six-round contest before the Washington Sporting Club, of Philadelphia. It will be the third time the big fellows have met. In their stero the Washington Sporting Club, of Philadelphia. It will be the third time the big fellows have met. In their first bout Maher put Choyaski to sleep in the sixth round with a lucky smaan so the isw.

In their second encounter, which was fought in Chicago, Choyaski had no trouble in winning from Maher. He out pointed him in all of the six rounds. Maher has not been fighting as well for the last two years as he was when he last met Choynski. The laster showed in his last battle with Frank Childs that the last two years as he was when he last met Choynski. The laster showed in his last battle with Frank Childs that the last had not the prospects are that he will stop blankers before the sixth round. Both index before the sixth round. Both met are reported as being in first-class condition for the battle.

The second contest in importance is a double before the sixth round. Both in a supplementation of the last two years as he was when he last met Choynski. The laster showed in his last battle with Frank Childs that the life prospects are that he will stop blankers and in the game, and the prospects are that he will stop blankers as he was when he last met Choynski. The laster showed residuely and the profession. They are Willie Fitsers in the profession for the battle.

The second contest in importance is the contest the should result to such as a s

The Wheat Market.

The local wheat market was but little affected by the reaction in Liverpool cables to-day, but rather followed the advance of 5 to 10 points in Paris and the firmness at Chicago by opening very steady. Corn was also well sustained by shorts and other interests favorable to a steady market, as May and July sold even with Saturday's final figures, while September was 1-4 of a cent higher. The world's grain shipments last week were: Wheat, 5,522,700 bushels, against 8,275,600 last year; Corn. 2,767,600, against 1,212,500 last year. New York's opening prices were: Wheat—May, 83 3-4; July, 801-4. Corn—July, 48 3-4.

Chicago's opening prices were: Wheat—3fay, 81 7-8 to 82; July, 75 3-4 to 75 5-8. ffected by the reaction in Liverpool

The Cotton Market.

The local cotton market opened easy to-day with prices five to seven points lower. Heavy seiling for long account attended the opening of the market, influenced by weak Liverpool cables, which reflected apprehension over the Venezuelan matter. Stop orders were
